

Can We Count On Your Unwavering Support?

Your generous contributions keep Auxiliary Department Programs afloat.

You already do so much for your VFW Auxiliary, but donations are dangerously low. Without our help, struggling veterans, service members and their families won't receive the assistance they need to keep going in hard times.

Please remember your contributions stay here in our state. And please support your Auxiliary mailings as generously as you can. Thank you.

