

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION – INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CAREFULLY

PLEASE DO NOT

- Leave blank lines between paragraphs.
- Include any information within the abstract title or text that could identify the authors or their institutions. Abstracts are reviewed anonymously. Author names and affiliations should be entered only in the appropriate fields within the submission system.
- Use American English spelling. Please use British English spelling throughout, e.g. tumour rather than tumor.
- Include full postal addresses when listing authors' affiliations. Please provide the department, institution and country where the institution is outside the UK.
- Include tables, graphs or figures within the abstract.

PLEASE DO

- Title: Capitalise the first letter of each principal word, excluding words such as if, and, of, the, a, in and on, unless they are the first word of the title.
- Enter the abstract text directly into the submission system template.
- Format the abstract text within the submission system template.
- Character count: The submission system uses a character count rather than a word count. The maximum permitted is 1,950 characters including spaces.
- Ensure that the abstract includes sufficient information to allow the work to be properly assessed. It should clearly describe the aim or background, methods, results and a brief conclusion. Statements such as "The results will be presented and discussed" are not sufficient.

OTHER INFORMATION:

- The title must be as brief as possible but long enough to indicate clearly the nature of the study.
- Abstracts deemed to contain insufficient information will not be published in the online supplement of the Journal of Pathology.
- If you wish to amend your submitted abstract before the submission deadline, please use the link sent to you at the time of submission.
- The permission of all authors must be obtained prior to abstract submission.
- Abstracts may not be amended after the abstract deadline.
- Abstracts are subject to review and submission does not guarantee acceptance.
- If an abstract is accepted, the presenting author will be required to register for and attend the meeting.
- Authors should declare any relevant conflicts of interest in accordance with the Society's requirements.
- Where applicable, authors are responsible for ensuring that the work has received appropriate ethical approval and that patient confidentiality is maintained.

ALL ABSTRACTS MUST COMPLY WITH THE SUBMISSION AND FORMATTING REQUIREMENTS ABOVE.
